DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The spacing of the lines of the specification is such as to make reading difficult. New application papers with lines 1½ or double spaced on good quality paper are required.
2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: On page 8 line 11, a number 24 is not indicated on figure 3. Similarly, axis 28 and plane 30 on lines 24-25 are not indicated on figure 4.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.
4. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 6 is unclear as to what is exactly meant by "integrating its positions".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kim et al. (2004/0042747). Kim et al. disclose a method for controlling PMD of an optical fiber during drawing comprising: applying torsion to fiber by displacement of the fiber to a member, capturing images of the fiber and member, analyzing the images to determine the position of the fiber relative to the member, and calculating the torsion applied to the fiber from the determined positions. (figure 2B, [0025], [0039], [0040], [0041], [0044], [0056], [0060], [0078]). Regarding claim 2, Furthermore, Kim et al. disclose the sensing of the oscillation of the member, resulting in an image of the angular position of the fiber relative to the member ([0056], [0058], [0060]). Regarding claim 3, Kim et al. also specifically mentions the periodic movement of the member ([0047], figure 2B). Regarding claim 4, Kim et al. disclose capturing at least one image periodically, with a period different from that of the movement of the member ([0059, figure 3). Regarding claims 5 and 6, Kim et al. present an example where the number of turns through which the fiber rolls on the member is determined and the mean position of the fiber is calculated by integrating its positions ([0070], [0073], [0074]).

Double Patenting

7. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Omum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

8. Claim 1 provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory double patenting over claim 1 of copending Application No. 10/629893. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: both applications recites imparting a torsion/spin on a fiber and capturing images of the fiber monitoring or calculating the final imparted spin on the fiber.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other copending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.
